A Word From Mr. Stiefel

It is with great pleasure that we return once again to Ivoryton and this year marks our coming of age as this is our TWENTY-FIRST season.

There is still among us, in our organization and in our audiences, those who recall our opening twenty-one years ago. To those patrons who are still in our midst, we express our gratitude; and to our newer patrons, we say welcome! Along with our coming of age, we are installing a new air conditioning plant so as to assure our patrons comfort on hot nights.

This will also be a season of recent Broadway hits. Among the attractions that we are presenting this summer are:

STUART ERWIN IN HARVEY

BASIL RATHBONE AND

MEG MUNDY IN

THE WINSLOW BOY

LON MC ALLISTER IN THE POOR
NUT

P. J. KELLY IN FINIAN'S RAINBOW
JOHN IRELAND AND JOANNE DRU

IN ARMS AND THE MAN

BRIAN AHERNE IN DEAR BRUTUS

Last but, far from least, Hollywood's newest and biggest glamor girl, Miss Shelley Winters, will appear here next week in that terrific Broadway comedy, BORN YESTERDAY. After Shelley Winters' appearance here she returns to Hollywood to continue her heavy picture schedule.

Incidentally, Born Yesterday, Harvey, and The Winslow Boy are exclusive Ivoryton "first" releases.

May we, in closing, say we appreciate your sending mail orders early to assure immediate attention from our box office and to assure your personal convenience.
